Opinions touching this Releafe.

I Think it is dangerous for R. to release the Lands out of which his Annuity of 100 l. per Annum doth Issue, notwithstanding the Proviso at the end of this Draught; But R. and T. may join in a Conveyance of all the Lands (out of which the Annuity is by the Will to issue) to J. S. and his Heirs to the intent that R. may have the 100 l. per Annum, and the Lands, subject to the said Rem to the use of T. and his Heirs.

A. B.

The Rent is not issuing out of the Lands, released, &c. But is reserved only by a Trust and Condition, That the Devisee of the Lands, shall pay 100 l. per Annum to the Devisee of the Rent, upon Condition, That he release unto the Devisees of the Land; so he must release to entitle himself to the Rent, and to the Condition and Trust for payment of it. Therefore I know no better way to pen this Release than by a saving of the Trust and Condition (put in the Will) by the Proviso at the end of this Draught.

There can be no Conveyance made by T: to charge the Land with a legal Security for Payment of the Rent by a Settlement to uses, because he has settled the same upon Marriage for Jointure, &c. Therefore the Security for the 100 l. per Annum, must stand as by the Will.

Opinions of several of the most Eminent Lawyers, touching Settlements, Wills, Dowers, &c.

Sir Fran. Pemberton's Opinion touching an Executor's waiving a Term for years granted to bis Testator.

B. being seized in see of a Messuage, Malthouse, Brewhouse, and six Acres of Land in Allen. 42. Birchington in Kent by Indenture dated in Nov- 1 Mod. 185. vember, 1680. did demise the same unto one T.S. Cro. Jac. 549: for 14 years from Michaelmas then next enfuing Yelv. 103. at the Rent of 20 l. per Annum. Afterwards the faid T.S. in confideration of a Marriage to be had betwixt the faid T. and one M. Daughter of B. C. Widow, and of 200 l. which he was to receive for her Marriage Portion in Michaelmas Term, Anno 33 Car. 2. did acknowledg a Judgment to the faid B. in 800 l, which by Indenture was defeazanced, That if the faid M. should survive the faid T. That then the Executors, Administrators or Assigns of the said T. should within a Month after the decease of the said T. pay unto the laid M. or her Affigns if the should be then living, 400 l. The Marriage betwixt the faid T. and M. was had, and the faid T. about Michaelmas 1683. died Intestate, leaving a personal Estate of the value of 300 l. and not above; after whose Death the said M. his Wife took Administra-Hh 2 ministration of his Goods, and entred upon the said Messuage and Lands, and after let the same to one R. R. until Mich. 1685.

Quest. If the said M notwithstanding her said Entry on the said Messuage, &c. may on Mich. next on notice given to Mr. B. relinquish the possession of the said Messuage, &c. and thereby discharge her self of the Payment of the Rent due for the same, she having no Assets in her hands after the said 400 l. due on the said Judgment, is satisfied; And the said Messuage, &c. not being worth above 10 l. per Annum, to be let, or whether by her Entry she be bound to hold the said Messuage, &c. during the said 14 years, and to make good the rest thereof out of her own Estate.

I think if she have paid all the Assets away towards the satisfaction of the Judgment acknowledged to B. she may relinquish the possession of the House at any Rent-day, paying the Arrears, till that time, this will discharge her of the Rent for the future.

But it is the fairest way for her to give the Landlord convenient notice for some reasonable time before she reliquisheth the possession, or her intention fo to do.

Case concering an Action of Dower.

Late Earl of S. being seized in Tail, with Remainder to his Brothers successively in Tail (which Remainders are preserved from being barred by Act of Parliament) of divers Mannors, &c. in several Counties in England, marries F. the present Countes Dowager, and by her has Issue J. the present Earl of S. (who is an Infant of about 3 years of Age) and died so seized. The Countes has brought several Writs of Dower against the present Earl, upon which several Summons's have been duly executed, and nothing can be said on behalf of the Insant to barr these Actions.

Supposing Judgments shall be obtained in these Actions, Will such Judgment conclude the Brothers of the late Earl, who are in the Remainder of the Estate, in Case the present Earl should die without Issue?

I am of Opinion, That a Judgment against this present Earl will bind all the Remainder-men, if this Earl should die without Issue.

Quest. Whether it be most prudent with respect to the Infant, and for the better establishing the Judgments to be obtained by the Countess Dowager in these Actions, That the Infant appear and plead any, and what Pleas; or that Judgments pass by Default, and a Grand Cape issue thereon?

Opinions.

I think it may be reasonable before the Retorn of the Grand Cape to acquaint Mr. C. who is next in Remainder with the Matter, and know whether he will defend it for the Earl or not; This will shew a fairness in the Prosecution, and I know not, nor can imagine that it can be anywise prejudicial to the Countess; For I think there is nothing can be pleaded in har of her Dower. And if there he a Default upon the Retorn of the Grand Cape, I think Judgment may fairly be entred for that default, and it will be good, so Summons and Proclamations he duly made.

Serj.

Serj. Wright's Opinion, touching barring an Estate-Tail, where there are Trustees to support Contingent Remainders.

Chargeth his personal Estate, and the Rents, Issues and Profits of his Lands, till his Son J. T. attain the Age of 24 years, with the Payment of 40 l to his Daughter Ann, to his Daughter Catherine 180 l. to his Daughter Jane 140 l. and to his Daughter Sarah 200 l. After all which be paid, or his Son J. T. attain to the Age of 24 years, He gives and bequeaths all his Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments (chargeable with and liable to the Payment of 4 l. per Annum, to his Daughter A.) unto his said Son J. T. for and during the Term of 99 years if he shall so long live.

And from and after the expiration or other Determination of the said Term of 99 years to his Cousins G. and S. E. and their Heirs, for and during the natural Life of the said J. in trust, to permit and suffer the said J. to take the Rents, Issues and Profits thereof during his Life, and to support the Contingent Remainders herein-aftermentioned, and to prevent their being destroyed.

And from and after the Expiration or other determination of the said Term of 99 years, and Death of the said  $\mathcal{F}$ . then he gives the said Lands,  $\mathcal{O}c$ .

To the first Son of the Body of the said J. lawfully, &c. Remainder to the 2d, 3d, 4th, Hh 4

oc. and the Heirs of the Body of every fuch the elder, and the Heirs of his Body,

And afterwards, and for default of such Issue to the Heirs Female of the Body of the said J.

And for default of fuch Issue, then to his Daughters, A. C. J. and S. their Heirs and Asfigns for ever.

With a Proviso for J. (if he happen to marry) to make any Woman, he shall marry a Jointure or Estate for the term of such Wife or Wives Life, successively with such and the very like Limitations of Remainders, even to the Issue of the Body of the said J.

7. was never married.

Quest. If by suffering a Common Recovery, he can barr the Remainders, if G. and S. E. will join with him?

I am of Opinion, That no Common Recovery, or other Act done by J. T. E. with or without the Concurrence of the Trustees G. and S. will barr the Remainders limited to the 4 Daughters of W. E. J. is only Tenant for 99 years, if he live so long; Remainder to G. and S.E. and their Heirs, during the Life of J. Remainder to several Contingences (which have not yet bappened) Remainder to the four Daughters in Fee. A Common Recovery Suffered by J. or by bim, and G. and S.E. will be a Forfeiture of their particular Estates, and give the 4 Daughters of the Testator an immediate Title to enter; But as to the Contingent Remainders to the Ist, 2d, 3d, and other Sons of J. and the Heirs of their Bodies, and the Remainder to the Heirs Female of J. (who are to take as Purchafors Purchasors in this Case, and not by descent) a Surrender or any other Act by which the particular Estates are destroyed will destroy those Remainders before they come in esse: But the Remainder to the 4 Daughters and their Heirs cannot be any ways barred or destroyed by Recovery or otherwise by the said J. and the Trustees, or any of them.

Mr. Poley's Opinion concerning the Act of Distribution.

A Man dies intestate, leaving neither Wife nor Children, Brother nor Sister, or other nearer Relation than a Neice, and the Children of a deceased Nephew.

Quest. Whether in this Case the Neice will be entituled to the Surplus of the whole Personal Estate, or that the Children of the deceased Nephew ought by right of Representation to have a Moiety of it.

I conceive the Children of the deceased Nepheno are not entituled to any Share by the late Statute of distributing Intestate Estates.

Maw and Harding heard at Ely-House, on Monday the 20th of July, 1691. a Case in point.

A Case concerning Bankrupts, Resolved by Mr. Northey.

A and B. were Copartners and Joint-Traders in a Joint-Stock in London by Covenants, which Copartnership ended about 7 years past; after the end of which Copartnership A. and B. continued Copartners and Joint-traders for three years by mutual Agreement, without any thing in writing, which Joint-Trade ceas'd at Christmes, 1690.

Since the Joint-Trade ceas'd (A. and B. having given a Note for 200 l. under their hands only while in Trade together) about two years fince A. prevailed with B. to take up the Note and become bound with him for the 200 l. although A. by Agreement at parting was to pay all Debts owing between them.

Also about two years since A. and B. became bound to a Person that they had dealings with, and bought Goods of when they were Traders, and to whom there was Mony owing at their parting. But before they gave Bond the Creditor gave them a General Release.

Since the Joint-Trade ceased A. being indebted to several Persons for Goods he bought, since on his own account, and not taking care to satisfy his Debts, he was at several times arrested for them, and to enlarge himself, prevailed with B. to be bound with him in Bonds for the same, and so turned Book-debts into Bonds, with Security for 1700 l.

A. is become a Bankrupt, and owes almost 4000 l. and his whole Estate will not amount to 1600 l. and B. stands bound for 1700 l. upon Bond, befides 400 l. A. owes to B. of his Share of the Stock due to him when they parted.

- A. before he broke, gives a Bond to B. to fave him harmless against several Bonds, he had entred into with him, and confesses a Judgment for 300 l. without a Defeazance to B. that fo B. might feize what Goods were in A's House and Shop to fatisfy his Debt of 400 L and fo far as it would rife to fatisfy what he was obliged with him; by virtue whereof B. seized Goods to the value of 445%. which remains in the Sheriffs hands, for that the Commissioners have assigned the same to the use of the Bankrupt's Creditors although the Goods were feifed and appraised beforethe Commission was fued out. A. joins with the Commissioners, and endeavours to make hirafelf a Bankrupt before the Judgment confeffed or the Execution executed, and would defraud B. in what he can.
- Quest. 1. Whether B. can be made a Bankrupt, there being nothing owing upon the Joint-Trade, but 27 l. and that B. was never bound with the Bankrupt, but fince they had parted some time, and the Creditor of the 27 l. will not join with the other Creditors for a Commission?
  - I conceive B. cannot be made a Bankrupt for the fingle Debt of 27 l. remaining unpaid of his Debts in Trade; however I think it advisable to get that discharged if it may be.
- Quest. 2. Whether the 200 L Note being turned into a Bond will oblige B. so far as to bring him within the Statute; for it is presumed if the Note had remained, B. had been liable.

I conceive the Bond discharges the old Debt, and is a new Debt contracted distinct from the Trade.

Quest. 3. Whether the Creditor giving a Release to A. and B. and taking a Bond from them doth not clear B. of coming within the Statute, although there were Goods owing for at the time of the parting of A. and B.

This is answered in the Answer to the last Quer.

Quest. 4. Whether B. can be brought within the Statute if there was Mony due to any Creditors of A. and B. when Copartners, and fince their parting the Creditors have discharged their Books and taken Bonds from A. and B. for the same, and now not being satisfied?

This is answered before.

Quest. 5. Whether the Bankrupts declaring or fwearing he committed Acts of Bankrupcy: As, that he absconded himself and lay from home, and ordered himself to be denied, and that he kept out of the way from home until the Execution was to be served, and came to be ready when the Officer entred the House, or the like, will prejudice the Execution?

I conceive the Bankrupt may be a Witness, and if he will fivear as is suggested, and be believed, it will over-reach B's Execution.

Quest.

fu

Queft. 6. Whether the Execution was not well executed, and what way to get the Mony levyed from the Sheriff?

The Court of King's Bench, in which the Judgment is, will compel the Sheriff to pay the Mony levied to the Plantiff.

Quest. 7. Whether can the Commissioners refuse B. with his Counterbonds to come into the Commission awarded against A. he paying Contribution, because B. hath not paid any of the Mony for which he is obliged?

B. may come in for a Creditor, but if he come in for the whole, he denies his Execution, and if he come in only for the Overplus, and the Execution do happen to be over-turned, it may be after too late if a Dividend he made in the mean time; however, I think it advisable for B. to claim but the Overplus of his Debt till he see what the Bankrupt will do.

Edw. Northey.

The Case of the Joiners of Nottingham, and Serj. Levinz's, and Mr. Agar's Opinions thereon.

IN the Town of Nottingham there is an antient Custom, That no Person or Persons, but such as are or shall be free of the said Town, or shall have served seven years, with a Freman of the same, shall use or exercise any Trade within the same Town.

The Joiners have time out of mind used the Joiners Trade within the said Town, without Interruption of any Foreigner, and there are several Freemen of that Trade within the said Town.

Divers Foreigners have of late crept into the faid Town, and do use the Joiners Trade there, not being Freemen, whereby the Joiners Trade is much damnified.

Quest. I. If a special Action upon the Case, grounded upon the Custom, be proper to be brought against one of the Ossenders by one of the Freemen?

11 Co. 53. Hob. 211,212. 2 H. 5. 5. No Action will lie for any particular Person, unless he has received particular Damage by others using the Trade within the Town.

Levinz.

I think not; for if one, then every one may bring an Action.

Agar.

Quest. 2.

Quest. 2. Whether it be most proper to bring the Action in one of the Courts at Westminster, or in the Court of Record held for the Town of Nottingham before the Mayor? &c.

I do not advise such an Action to be brought; but if it were to be brought it were more proper to be brought in one of the Courts at Westminster, than before the Mayor of the Town.

Levinz.

If the Action would lie for any one Person, the Town Court were proper for it.

Agar.

Quest. 3. That Trade not being incorporated im o a Company, Whether upon the Mayor and Bailiffs making a Stranger that is of that Trade a Burgess of the Town, such Stranger after he is made a Burgess, may not exercise that Trade within the said Town, being duly qualified according to the Statute of the 5th of Eliz. to exercise elsewhere.

If the Corporation make a Stranger free of the Town, be may surely use any Trade there; for the Custom is, That none but Freemen shall use the Trade there.

Levinz.

I conceive be may.

Agar.

Quest. 4.

Leviny.

Quelt. 4. Whether the Coporation may not make a By-Law under a Penalty to exclude such as are not Freemen, nor shall have served as Apprentices within the Corporation?

This is the most proper Course: To make a By-Law, That none but Freemen may useTrade there under a Penalty, to be received by the Mayor or Chamberlain, or some other Officer of the Corporation.

Levinz.

Although by Prescription or Charter they may have Power to make By-Laws for the good Order and Government of the Trades and Mysteries within the Corporation, yet such a By-Law as this feems to restrain Men from their lawful Trades and Occupation; and if so, then it will not be good.

Agar.

Quest. 5. Whether an Action of Debt may not be brought by any of the Trade upon the breach of such By-Law, and where is it most proper to bring the same?

If any use the Trade contrary to the By-Law, to bring an Action in the name of the Major, or other Officer to whom the Penalty is limited, in some Court at Westminster, not at Nottingham, but no particular Person can bring this Action; but it must be in the name of the Mayor or other Officer to whom the Penalty is limited to be paid.

Levinz.

I think not. But it were better by such By-Law (if such a one can be made good) to give the Penalty to the Coporation, and then they are to be Plaintiffs, and may sue (most properly I think) in the Common Pleas or King's Bench at Westminster.

Upon the whole matter, if the Offender against the Custom be punishable, a special Indictment (setting forth the Custom) seems to me the most proper way, and the Defendants (likely) will remove it into the King's Bench to have it quashed, which the Court will do if the Custom be against Law, or the Indictment had, and so the Coporation may best know what to do hereafter.

Upon a Conveyance.

K ING Charles the First by his Letters Patents grants several Wastes and Commons, with the Woods, Underwoods, Mines, Quarries, &c. in and upon the same to A. and his Heirs for ever, referving 10 L. Rent to the Crown.

A. by Indenture of Bargain and Sale enrolled conveys the Premises to B. and his Heirs.

Sale enrolled, conveys the fame to C. and his Heirs.

The Heir of C. has contracted to convey to E. and his Heirs, the said Letters Patents, and things therein granted in consideration of a Sum in hand, and of 100 L to be paid at the end of two years, if the said E. chooses to pay the same rather than quit the Premises.

It is believed the Rent was never answered to the King, nor any Attempt made to improve or make advantage of the Premises.

Quest. If the Premises should be conveyed to E. by Bargain and Sale enrolled, on Condition the same to be void, if the 100 L be not paid to the Grantor, at the time E. can be any way charged (in his own Estate or Person) with the Arrears of Rent to the King, or only the Premises, be liable thereto, and likewise as to the accruing Rent?

And whether by Bargain and Sale enrolled, or Lease and Release upon the Condition aforefaid, or other way be best to take a Conveyance of the Premises, so as he may most safely quit or hold it according as he shall find, he can procure the Arrears to be discharged by Privy Seal, or make advantage of the Premises?

I am of Opinion, That if E. take such a Conveyance of the Grounds above-mentioned, on Condition to be void, if the 100 l. should not be paid at such a time, E. cannot be charged of his own Estate with any Arrears of the Fee-farm Rent incurred before the Conveyance made to him, but with the Rent incurred, during such time as the Estate is in him (though Conditional) I conceive he may be charged in his own Estate, which will be all liable to answer such Rent to the King, as well as the Lands so conveyed to him.

I think E. had best take the Purchase by Lease and Release: For peradventure by a Bargain and Sale enrolled be may lay himself too open to the demand of the King for his Fee-farm Rent, if E. should not think fit to pay the 100 l.

Anno 1673 SIR 7. O. being seized in Fee of a Barn and

Che Just a Campan

Com' Hertf.

Feb. 21. 1674. Demises the same per Lease to J. H. from Michaelmas before the date for 21 years under the yearly Rent of 26 l. per Annum, with Covenants to repair, and not to plough some Lands, under Forseiture of 10 s. per Acre, and to lay 30 Loads of Dung yearly upon the Premises.

Dec. 1. 1681. R. C. purchases the Fee and Inheritance of the said Premises of the said Sir J.O. (H. being then dead, and the Premises being then held by his Relict and Executrix) who sometime after C's said Purchase, finding her self not in a Condition to hold the said Premises, and providing another good Tenant for the same; makes her Application to C. to accept of such Person for his Tenant, and delivers up her Lease to the Person she brought to C. to the intent to let it accordingly.

May 20. 1682. C. by Indorsment sealed on the said Lease made by Sir J. O. to the said H. Demises the said Land and Premises to R.W. (being the same Person brought and desired by the Relict and Executrix of the said J.H.) To hold during the Remainder of the Term within demised, to the said J.H. paying the said Rent, and performing the Covenants therein contained: W. covenants for himself and his Executors to pay the said Rent, and perform all the said Covenants of the said H's Lease.

R.W. dies and leaves his Brother M. W. his Executor, who enters into the said Lands and Premises, and pays the said Rent to C. but suffers the said Barn to decay, and ploughs up part of the Lands contrary to H's Covenants, ut antea.

Quest. 1. Whether the said Indos sment on the Back of the said H's Lease to W. ut antea, is good to hold the said M. W. his Executor to perform the said Covenants, and sable to the breach thereof?

The Widow of H. being in possession of the Term as Executrix or Administratrix to ber Husband, and granting the Term to W. when he by Indorsment on the Lease accepted a new Lease for the Remainder of the years, that was a Surrender of the said Term, and taking a new one for the Remainder of the years; and the Indorsment will bind him to perform all the Covenants that she or her Husband should have done.

Quest. 2. Whether the laid M. the Executor shall be fued as Executor or Assignee, the breach of Covenants being done in the Executor's time, and none in the Testators?

The Executor of W. shall be charged as Assignee for the Breaches in his own time, and answer of his own Goods, he enjoying the Term.

Quest. 3. If the Action must not be brought in the Debet and Detinet against M. the Executor or Assignee of the said R. W. upon the breach of Covenants in ploughing, he forseiting so much an Acre for so doing; and not by breach of Covenants.

The Action of Debt for the Forfeitures in ploughing done in the Executor's time shall be brought in the Debet and Detinet, and charge him of his own Goods, and not as Executor, himself emjoying the Term, and committing the Forfeitures.

Mr.

Mr. Dobyn's Opinion on a Case concerning a Distress for Rent.

Years at 60 l. per Annum Rent, payable at Lady Day and Muchaelmas. B. during this Term dies, and the Reversion descends upon C. the Term expires, and A. holds the Land of C. by parol for many years after the expiration of the 21 years, and pays the Rent.

About the middle of September 1688. C. the Landlord takes a Bond of A. for 200 l. as a Security for what Rent was then due; A. still continues his Bargain, and pays 40 l. afterwards to the use of C. C. after Harvest last, and before Michaelmas 1689. dies, and the Estate descends upon D. who is also Co-executor with another to C. D. after this Descent, promises to A. That he should go on with his Bargain, and pursuant to that promise A. sows a Crop of Wheat.

Since Mich. 1689. D. makes a Diffress for Rent and he does it in this manner, viz. he comes to the House and locks up the Barn-doors, which were full of Corn in the Straw, and there leaves it; but afterwards delivers one of the Barn keys to A. and so A. hath Possession of that Barn again: there are likewise Ricks of Corn without the Barn.

A. ows E. 60 l. by Judgment.

Quest. 1. Whether A. since the Determination of the 21 years Lease, was not Tenant at will, which determined on the death of C. and consequently, whether D. might distrain for Rent after the Term determined?

A. was but Tenant at will to C. and his Estate determined after the Crop was in, and he became a new Tenant at will to D. from the time in the promise mentioned.

Quest. 2. Whether by the descent of the Estate on D. and D. promising A. to go on with his Bargain, the Term was not revived to continue at will, and whether (if this Promise were made before Mich. 1689.) he might distrain for that half years Rent, or (if the promise were after that Mich.) he might distrain for Rent due at Mich, which was before the Term revived?

But D. cannot distrain the Tenant for any Arrears due upon the old Bargain; nor is the Term revived for any such purpose; and it is a plain Rule in Law, That no Distress can be for Rent
after the Term ended.

Quest: 3. Whether any Landlord may distrain for Rent Corn in a Barn and Rick, and lock it up without carrying it away; or if the Landlord may so distrain, whether by the delivery of the Key, the possession of the Corn is not revested in A. and so execution on the Judgment for 60 l. may be levyed thereon?

If D. might have distrained, yet be ought to have carried the Goods distrained off from the Premises, for want of which this is not a sufficient Distress; and besides, the delivery of the Key is a Waver of the Distress.

Quest. 4. Whether D. can at farthest distrain for more than the Rent due at Mich. 1689?

D. can have no pretence to distrain for more Rent than the half years Rent due at Michaelmas, nor could be distrain for that after Michaelmas, I conceive notwithstanding this pretence of Distress the Corn may be taken in Execution.

Quest. 5. Whether the Tenant shall not have liberty to take off his Crop of Wheat, notwith-standing the Possession be recovered from him in Ejectment on the Determination of the Will, or for Non-payment of Rent?

If by this Quety is meant the Crop now in the Ground, I conceive the Pramise gave him power to sow it, and his Landlord cannot determine his Will until the Crop be carried of; and I do not observe any power of Rentry was reserved for Non-Payment of Rent, so that the Landlord can maintain no Ejectment, until after the Crop is in: But the words of the Promise and Agreement ought to have been put in the Case, lest there be some Mistake.

Dec. 12. 1689.

W. Dobyns.

A Case concerning a Formedon.

I. D. & al. bring a Formedon for divers Lands in Com' Oxon. against R. R. who appears and pleads in Abatement several Mistakes in the said Writ of Formedon, which Mistakes the Court (tho often moved) will not give leave to amend.

Afterwards R. R. makes a Feoffment in Fee of the Lands in question to above 100 Persons, jointly living in all or most Counties in England, some in Wales, and some in Ireland, and gives Livery to only one of the said Persons for himself and the rest of the Co-feosses (being also Jointenants) of whom one to our knowledg, and probably several are since dead.

Quest. Whether the Court must be moved to discontinue the said Formed and must Costs be paid thereon before a new Formedon can be brought to bear Test for the same Lands against the said R. R. and all his said Co-feosses (or Vouchers) if we can learn their names?

It is advisable to move the Court to discontinue this Action, and Costs must be paid; but the new Formedon may be brought presently upon the discontinuance, the the Costs are not paid.

Quest. Whether upon such a new Formedon the said R. R. and all his Co-feosses (or Vouchers) must appear and plead jointly, or whether one of them may appear and vouch a 2d; the 2d, a 3d; the 3d, a 4tb; and so the whole too, in the same manner as if they had not been demanded against against in the said Formedon: or whether such of them appear or escape not, and plead jointly or severally are not as much out of the case as if no such Deed of Feossment, or Vouchers made?

It will be fruitless to bring the new Formedon against all the Co-feosses, for every of them will Essoin; and if they be 100 of them, then it will be 50 years before all will have essoined; and if any of them die in the mean time his Death abates that Astion, and you must begin de novo.

Quest. A new Formedon being brought against the said R. R. and all his said Co-seosses or Vouchers (if possible by name and addition exactly, as in the said Feossement) in case any of the said Co-seosses (against which such Formedon is brought) be or shall be dead in time before such new Formedon shall bear Test, or be returnable (of which 'tis very hard to know the certainty, by reason of the remoteness of their aboad, what will be the Consequence, shall such new Formedon abate pro toto; or shall the same be good against all the Survivors?

I advise the new Formedon to be brought against R.R. the Feoff or only, who I suppose notwithst anding the Feoffment continues in possession, and takes the Prosits; for I think by the Statute, 13 Eliz. Cap. 5. the Feoffment will be word as to the Demandant's Action.

The Recorder of Stafford's Case, and Mr. Northey's Opinion thereupon.

Stafford is a Burrough by Prescription.

King John by his Charter (which is the first Charter that is extant) granted to the Burgesses of Stafford, that the Vill of Stafford should be a Free Burrough for ever, and several Privileges, are thereby granted to the Burgesses of Stafford.

Since which 18 feveral Charters, with fome Addition of Confirmation, have been granted to them.

The last Charter by which they act now, was granted to them by King James the First, by which Charter (there being before 2 Bailiss, which was found inconvenient) they are in corporated by the name of Mayor and Burgesses of the Burrough of Stafford in the County Stafford; and it is further ordained and granted. That there may be and shall be 10 chief Burgesses within the said Burrough, who together with the said Mayor, shall be the Common Council, &c. so that the Company Consists of 21.

The Clauses of the said Charter, relating to the Recorder.

Quest. 1. Is the Recorder by the words of the Charter during pleasure?

Its' plain the Recorder is by the Charter during the pleasure of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, and at their will and pleasure may be removed without any Cause, but their pleasure.

Quest. 2. If the Recorder, who is a Barrister (for whom the Law hath some Respects) be during pleasure, need any cause be shewed for turning him out, as there is in Case of a Common Council-man, &c.

I conceive he may be removed at pleasure, and no cause need be shewed for such turning him out, and so it was heretofore adjudged in the Case of Mr. Strj. Holt, who was so removed from being Recorder of Abingdon.

Quest. 3. Admitting the Recorder be during pleasure (if 11 who are the major part of the Company) assemble, Can the Majority of them where they do not all concur, make an Order to turn him out?

I conceive the Majority of the Common Councilmen meeting, they are the Common Council, and what what the greater part of them so met do, is the Act of the Common Council; therefore Mr. F. was well removed by the Common Council.

Quest.4. Can the Mayor alone make a Return to the Mandamus?

The Return must be in the name of the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgesses; but if the Mayor alone make the Return in their names, the Court of King's Bench will receive it: and if true, it will be well.

Be pleased to direct the form and method of a proper Return in this Case, either by the Mayor alone, or the Majority of the Company.

Note, The Mandamus says he was elected secundum consuetud. Burgi, &c. The Return to the Writ must set out that part of the Charter that grants to the Coporation to have a Recorder how to be chosen, how to continue, and how to be amoved, &c. That Mr. F. acted as is supposed by the Writ, was duly chosen Recorder; and after, viz. such a day by the Mayor, Aldermen, and the rest of the Common Council in Common Council assembled, was removed from being Recorder, and was never after chosen to be Recorder.

Quest. 5. The Members of the Common Council are sworn to meet upon every lawful Summons, and noting of the Bell (unless they have any reasonable Lett) shall once or twice wilfully absenting be a sufficient Cause to turn the Absenter out of the Company, or what are reckoned sufficient Causes.

I conceive it may, if the Party be summoned, and shew no cause of his Absence, but that it was obstinacy, Quest. 6. The Statute 13 Car. 2. Stat. 2. cap. par. 12. Enacts, That no Person for ever hereafter shall be chose into any of the Offices aforesaid (Common-Council-Men, &c. are beforementioned) that shall not within one year next before such Choice take the Sacrament according to the Rights of the Church of England; And that every person so chose shall take the Oaths and subscribe the Declaration; And that in default thereof the choice to be void. Shall the neglecting to take the Sacrament before he be chose make void the Choice, tho he takes the Oaths, and subscribes the Declaration, and receive the Sacrament too after he is chose, as a later Statute requires?

The Act is express; the Person chosen ought to receive the Sacrament within a year before his Choice, otherwise as to him the Choice is void.

Sir George Hutchins's Opinion concerning a Partition between Joint-Tenants.

the viction of a proper

TWO Feme-Coverts are Jointenants in fee of feveral Houses and Ground, &c.

Their Husbands respectively agree under their Hands and Seals in writing to make a Division of the Premises, and that the Women should join in, &c. confirm the same by Fine, and be assured as Council should advise.

The Premises are accordingly set out to be divided, and each Party's share allotted to him, and accepted by him, but the Women have neither as yet joined in or confirmed the said Division.

It is omitted in the Agreement for the Division, That if any part of either Parties Share were claimed or taken away by prior Title or Incumbrance, that the Loss and Defence thereof should be born and made good between them equally; and since there is a Claim or pretence of Claim to a part of one of the Shares set out and divided as aforesaid, and the other Party resuseth to have it mutually agreed between them, upon confirming the Division, that all Claims and Recoveries thereupon either part divided, shall be born and made good equally between them.

Quest. Whether notwithstanding the Division agreed on and accepted by the Husbands as aforesaid, either Party shall not be bound in Equity to bear and pay a Moiety of the Claims and Recoveries which may happen to either side; and whether a Covenant to that effect be not kk 2 reasonable fonable to be mutually entred into by them upon confirming the Division by the Women?

I am clear of Opinion that in case any Incumbrance or Defect of Title shall appear on the part agreed to be allotted to one of the Parties, the other Party ought in equity to make good a Moiety; and that Equity will relieve in such a Case, tho the Agreement be executed; but in this Case the Agreement is not yet perfected; and therefore I make no doubt but a Court of Equity will direct mutual Covenants in case of Incumbrances or Defect of Title, and that the Mony to be paid by the one to the other will be taken to make the Partition equal, but not in respect of any bazard of Incumbrances, &CC.

Mr. P's Case upon a Settlement.

Y Act of Parliament the Mannor of Standerwick, and divers Messuages, Lands and Tenements there are vested in W.W. the Father. and W. W. the Son, and C. R. and their Heirs, to the use and intent, That M. P. shall receive the yearly Sum of 40 l. out of the same for his life, with power to diffrain in case of Non-payment, and as for and concerning the Mannor, &c. fo charged to the use of R.P. for 99 years, if he shall so long live, with Remainder to W.W. the Father, and W. W. the Son, during the life of R. P. in trust to preserve the Contingent Estates, and permit R. P. to receive the Profits, Remainder to A. P. the Wife of R. for life in Barr of Dower, Remainder to the first, and all other the Sons of R. on the Body of the faid A. begotten successively in Tail Male, the Remainder to W. W. the Father, and W.W. the Son for 200 years in Trutt to raife Portions for Daughters in case of no Sons, and in case of no Daughters to raife 1000 l. for W.W. the Father, the Remainder to the use of the said R. P. and the Heirs Males of his Body, the Remainder to M.P. the younger, and the Heirs Males of his Body, Remainder to M. the elder, and the Heirs Males of his Body; the Remainder to R. in Fee.

There is in the A& a Proviso that gives power to R. P. to charge the Premises with 1500 l. for younger Children.

M P. is dead.

R. P. has no Issue.

Quest. If W. W. the Father, and W. W. the Son, should join with R. P. in making a Terant to a Precipe, and a Writ of Entry should be brought against such Tenant, and he should vouch R. P. and he the Common Vouchee, and thereupon a Common Recovery be had, which of the Contingent Estates will be barred by such Recovery, and may the same be safely purchased?

If the W's join in the Conveyance, I think the Purchasor may be safe in it, and all the Estates will be barred, but the Wife must join in a Fine Barr her Estate for Life, else nothing can to done.

Supposing such Recovery to barr any of the Contingent Estates at Law, Would not Equity punish the Trustees for preserving the Contingent Estates, or preserve the Contingent Remainders, and subject the Estate, in whose hands soever they come as Purchasors, notwithstanding such Recovery?

I think all the Parties upon whose account the Settlement was made now living concurring, Equity will not punish the Trustees not do any thing for setting up the Contingent Estates that have been destroyed by this Recovery.

Supposing the Wife of R. P. should join in a Fine, with R. P. and the Truftees for making fuch Tenant to a Precipe, and to barr the Dower, in order to subject some part of the Estate to the Payment of Debts, and fettle the residue to the same uses by the Act; Would not such new Settlement be voluntary and fraudulent against Purchafors from R. for a valuable Confideration?

I think if there be a previous Agreement to make another Settlement of the residue of the Estate to the former uses, That will be Consideration enough to keep this new Settlement from being looks upon as a fraudulent Settlement.

Casalina the last The Cafe. 10

CIR T. P. by his Will dated Octob. 15. 1672. Devises his Estate at Cornwall in Com' Oxon. to Dame E. his Executrix and her Heirs, to the intent to give her power to engage of Mortgage all or any part thereof for 3000 % for the benefit of his younger Children to be difposed of according to the Schedule to his faid Will annexed; but if his eldeft Son should raise the said Mony, or his Executrix should find a more convenient way to pay it, then he gives the faid Cormuall Estate to his eldest Son T. P. Efg. during his natural Life, and to the Heirs Males of his Body lawfully begotten, and for want of such Issue to his Son F. (Now Sir F.) and his Heirs Males lawfully begotten. Remainder to all the rest of his Sons according to their feveral Ages, and the Heirs Males of their Bodies, Remainder to his own right Heirs.

In the Schedule anext to the said Will, he gives his eldest Daughter E. 800 l. If she marry any body but a Parson; and if a Parson 200 l. to be paid within three Months after her Marriage, and to his Son F. (now Sir F.) the Sum of 400 l. to be paid him when out of his Apprenticeship, and to his Daughter C. 500 l. and to his Daughters Pl and L. the like to be paid within three Months after Marriage, or age of 20. And to his Sons C. H. A. F. R. and F. the several Sums of 400 l. to be paid at the age of 20, if then alive; And if any of his younger Children

Children should die before their Legacies should become payable the Legacy of such Child or Children to be divided amongst the surviving younger Children then unmarried.

And if the Cornwall Estate should descend according to the asoresaid Entail to any of his younger Sons for want of Issue Male of his eldest Son T. then the Legacy of such younger Son to whom the said Cornwall Estate should descend should be equally divided amongst the rest of the younger Children then unmarryed.

He further gives his Impropriation of Wotton Yardland at Kingham to his faid Executrix to be fold towards the raising the said Legacies, declaring his intent, That if his Executrix should find it difficult to sell Wotton and Kingham at the rate he imposed on them she should not be liable to suits for what she could not help, but then the Children whose Portions should be then unpaid, must either stay till the Estates could be fold, or else take them amongst them at the same Proportion set upon them, which he declares his Executrix to have full power to do.

He declares further, That the Wotton and Kingbum Estate should not be imposed on any of his Daughters, without their Consent, but upon his younger Sons only.

Note, That Sir T. P. the Testator's eldest Son died a Batchellor, and before his Death gave a Bond to his Brother F. (now Sir F.) for his 400 l. he being then out of his time of Apprenticeship, at which time his Legacy is directed to be paid.

Quest. Whether Sir F. having the said Cornwall Estate descended to him as a younger Brother ther, shall refund his Legacy of 400 L. which he was of age to receive, and took his Brother Sir T's. Security for in his life time, and gave a Discharge for it?

The Cause for dividing the younger Sons Legacy, to whom the Cornwall Estate should descend, cannot (as I conceive) be construed to make such younger Son refund his Legacy at any distance of time what soever, after he had received it; but only to divide it amongst the younger Children, if the Estate so descended before the Legacy was received; and in this Case, Sir F's taking Security, and thereupon giving a Release amounts to an actual Receipt.

Note, That the Wossen and Kingbam Estates could not be sold by the Executrix for 1200 L so that she was advised, that it was not safe to dispose of it before the younger Son came of age, or at least not safe for a Purchasor to buy.

Note further, That two of the younger Sons lived to the age of 20 years, and foon after died; and one of the 3 youngest died before he came to 20, being the time appointed by the Will for the payment of the several Legacies, or in case the Estate could not be fold, then the same to be divided.

Quet. Whether two parts of the faid Wotton and Kingbam Estate were not Lands in the hands of the two Brothers, that survived 20, and so descended to their Heir at Law, or whether it still remains a personal Estate, and so goes to their Executors or Administrators?

The Legacies given and intended to the younger Sons were merely at first Mony-Legacies; and Wotton and Kingham Estates were only further Securities for them: Therefore, I think, fince those Estates were not actually allotted to the two younger Sons, who attained 20 years of age by the Executrix, but remained in the Same plight as they were before; That their Legacies shall be divided, if they died intestate, among ft the next a kin according to the Act of Distributions, as personal Estate, and Shall not fall so the Heir wholly; for Mony Secured by Lands of Inberitance, remains Personal Estate, till the Land becomes absolutely the Estate of the Creditor, or of bim who is entituled to the Mony upon it. 1 10 sometime birt of Herry Lasten the faid

C. vowson of the Rectory of Birlingham in the County of Worcester, for valuable Considerations, grants the next avoidance thereof to E.W. and in the Grant of the Avoidance is a Condition, That if T. N. then Incumbent of the Church of Birlingham, should not within one Month next after notice to be given him of the first, and next avoidance of the Church of Penecomb in the County of Hereford, resign the said Rectory to the end the Grant of the Avoidance might take effect, then the Grant of that next Presentation to be void.

Mr. T. N. had before that time fecured to himself the next Presentation to the Church of Pencomb, the Incumbent thereof being then 80 years of age.

Mr. H. gives a Judgment to Mrs. W. of 2501 to void, if Mr. N. refigned the Church of Birlingham within one Month after notice of the Church of Pencomb's being void.

The Minister of Pencombe being in extremis, Mrs. W. treats with one Mr. M. for Sale of the Presentation granted to Mrs. W. of the Rectory of Birlingham, and after the Incumbent of Pencomb was actually dead, Mrs. W. in Consideration of 150 l. grants the said next Presentation to one M. and assigns the Judgment from Mr. H. to Mr. M. and afterwards M in consideration of Mony, presents J.

S. to the Rectory of Birlingham, after N. had actually left the Rectory of Birlingham.

We are not very positive that we can make proof of the last Agreement between M. and S.

Quest. If the Contract between H and W. were Symoniacal?

I conceive this Contract between H. and Mrs. W. was no Simony, but a lawful Bargain.

Quest. If the Contract between W. and M. were Simoniacal?

I think this Contract was not Simonical, but a lawful Bargain; the Church of Birlingham being then full: But when M. for Money, prefents S. this was a Simoniacal Contract, and gives a Title to the Crown to Prefent.

Quest. If all these Matters may be put in Issue, or whether a Plaintiff in Quare Impedit shall be restrained to one instance of Simony only.

I conceive in pleading the Simony it must be one single Act of Simony that must be insisted on, and not many Simoniacal Contracts alledged for making a Title to the Grown.

G. by his Will devises to F. G. 3000 1 to be paid at his age of 21 years, and in the mean time that he should have such sufficient maintenance and Education out of it as his Wife and Overfeers should think fit, and the Overplus to be received by his Wife during her Widowhood for increasing of his Portion; and if his Wife married a fecond Husband, then the 2000 l. either to be laid out in a Purchase for his Son and his Heirs, or elfe 2000 1. to be deposited in the hands of the Overfeers of his Will, and 1000 l. in the hands of his Wife for the beuefic of his Son; and if F. should die, then to be equally divided between his Sifters, and E. his Wife, to have the disposition of 1000 L and 500 l. to be paid unto F. the Son of R. The same F. G. by Indenture, in consideration of a yearly Rent reserved and agreed to be paid out of the Premises by A. to him during his his life, which Rent is not near the yearly value of the Land, covenants to levy a Fine of the Premises amongst other things to W. and H. to the intent to make them Tenants to a Precipe in order to suffer a Common Recovery thereof to enure to A. for life, and after his Decease to A. his Son and his Heirs, subject to the said Rent during the life of F. G.

A Fine is levyed accordingly.

A Recovery is suffered accordingly wherein the Fenants vouch F. the Son of T. G. and he the Common Vouches.

Quest. If this Recovery suffered by the said F. be a Bar to the equitable Remainder vested in the Trustees for the benefit of the Sisters of the same F. the Son of R. G?

I conceive it is: For by the Rules of the Common Law, be that comes in under a Common Recovery, is supposed by Law to be seized of the very Estate which he had who suffered the Common Recovery, which in supposition of Law does not determine, though be dies without Iffue; and so no Remainders or Contingencies that are subsequent to that Estate-Tail, can ever arise to charge the Land, being all subsequent to that Estate, which in Judgment of Law is still in being: And though here the Party had nothing in the Land but a Trust, yet since in Equity they do allow such Recoveries to barr Estates-Tail, and the Remainders, they must go according to the Rules of Law as to Contingencies also.

Quest. 2. In Case it be a Barr, if Equity ought to charge those Lands with 25 l. for the benefit of the said Sifters, and F. the Son of R. in case F. the Son of T. die without Issue, by vertue of the Will of T. G.

I Conceive the Sifters cannot claim any thing by the Will; for that was but in case the Money were not laid out: For, if all the Mony had been laid out as it might have been, they were to have nothing, now are they now out of what was laid out, but according to the new Trust upon the Purchase, and that is barred, and they have had a Competence for the Contingent, they might have had by the Will 550 l. a piece, which is more than their Contingent was worth.

Quest.3. Both the Sisters of F. the Son of T. being Dead, To whom shall their Shares of the Monies to be raised by Sale of the Premises, in case the same F. die without Issue, go, supposing the said Remainder not to be barred?

in Case of a Future Conveyance by F. the Son of T. for a valuable Consideration?

I Conceive this will be but a voluntary Conveyance against a Purchasor that shall buy the Estate for a valuable Consideration, here being nothing paid, but a Rent to be paid for a Life out of the Prosits of the Land; and that under the value of them, and upon a Conveyance of the whole Inheritance, and so not like the case of an ordinary Lessee for years.
